Reading homework: Each student must read aloud for at least one hour per week to an adult or older child. If the student reads more than an hour, the total should be recorded. A class total will be kept at school. After each reading, please record the name of the book, the date read, the minutes read, and the signature of the person to whom the book was read. Please record the time in minutes. This assignment will always be due on Friday, or the last day of the school week. On that day, a new sheet will be given to the student.
